

Marcos Segador joins Gi Group India as Country Manager

Noida | April 2018

Gi Group announced that Marcos Segador, previously European Category Manager at Selecta (Europe's leading vending & coffee services company) has joined Gi Group India in the role of Country Manager.

Marcos will be responsible for developing all the businesses of Gi Group across all the branches holding full P&L responsibility.

In his years working in different roles and positions, Marcos has accumulated a vast experience in International Management, leading top performing multicultural teams and brands in over 15 countries.

“I am thrilled that Marcos will be heading India”, says Daniele Merlerati who is International Business Senior Director at Gi Group and was the interim Country Head for India until now. “He is highly experienced and has good insights about Asian business practices. He shares our values and our focus on service. He has extensive experience in creating brand values that can be of great assistance in creation of employee value proposition for Gi Group.”

On one hand, the recruitment teams of Elixir Consulting (GIHR) set the standard for the industry with use of industry's best candidate management system, which is followed by Gi Group globally. On the other hand, Gi Staffing Services (GiSS) has been adopting innovative practices in staffing industry and creating new benchmarks.

Commenting on his appointment, Marcos Segador said, “I am honoured to lead Gi Group in India. It's a great opportunity to manage an important country within our organization in a fascinating country as India.”

Marcos is Telecommunication Engineer and International MBA from EADA Business School (Barcelona) and AIT School of Management (Bangkok & Hanoi).

He had an intensive Induction held in Milan after his joining. In India, Marcos will be based out of Bangalore and will take care of all other 9 locations and businesses from there.
